AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th Day of June, 1752,

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to Order, That the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Sixteenth of July next, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the 28th Day of September following.

WHereas their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices have received Information, that the Plague hath lately broke out within the State or Dominion of Algiers in Africa, and that great Numbers of Perſons die daily thereof—Their Excellencies have therefore thought proper, for preventing the ſaid Infection from being brought into this Kingdom, to Order, as it is hereby ordered, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, That the Quarantine of Forty Days, now ſubſiſting by Orders of his Majeſty in Council of the 18th of June 1747, and 28th of June 1749, upon all Ships and Veſſels coming from any of the Ports in Weſt Barbary upon the Atlantick Ocean, or from any of the Ports in the Streights of Gibraltar on the Barbary Coaſt, or any other of the Ports on that Coaſt in the Mediterranean, lying between the ſaid Streights and Cape de las Tres Forcas in the Kingdom of Fez, be extended Eaſtward upon the African Coaſt, from the ſaid Cape de las Tres Forcas to Cape Ruſara in the Kingdom of Barca—And that all Ships and Veſſels already arrived and not unladen, or that ſhall hereafter arrive in the Ports of this Kingdom, from any of the Ports or Places between the ſaid

Conſtantinople, May 24. The Captain Baſhaw, or High-Admiral, put to Sea on Wedneſday Morning laſt with a Fleet of ten Men of War, and the like Number of Gallies, Part of which are to cruize off the Coaſt of Barbary, to protect the Navigation of the Regencies of Africa, and the Remainder are to ſail to the Iſlands in the Archipelago, in order to collect the annual Tributes which the Inhabitants of thoſe Iſlands pay to the Sultan. The laſt Advices received here from Perſia ſeem to give this Court ſome Uneaſineſs, and 'tis ſaid, that Meaſures will ſoon be taken for ſtopping the Progreſs of Prince Heraclius of Georgia, whoſe great Power, 'tis thought, may otherwiſe ſoon become prejudicial to this Empire.

Petersbourg, June 15. A few Days ago her Imperial Majeſty received Diſpatches by a Courier from M. Obreskoy, our Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, by which we learn, that the Grand Signior perſiſts invariably in his Reſolution of living in perfect Friendſhip with all the Chriſtian Powers, and particularly with this Empire. We alſo learn by the ſame Diſpatches, that the Tartars having lately made an Incurſion into the Ruſſian Territories, his Sublime Highneſs was no ſooner informed thereof, than he immediately gave Orders to the Grand Vizier and the Divan to take all poſſible Precautions to prevent the like for the Future.

Naples, June 16. On Sunday laſt the Queen appeared in Publick for the firſt Time ſince her Lying-in, on which Occaſion her Majeſty received the Compliments of the principal Nobility. This Week ſeveral Veſſels arrived here laden with Corn and other Proviſions, the Maſters of which aſſure us, that they perceived no Barbary Corſairs on the Coaſt; ſo that 'tis imagined thoſe Pyrates have for the preſent quitted theſe Seas.

Florence, June 19. The Council of this Regency are taking all poſſible Precautions to prevent the Commerce of the Maritime Places in this Grand Dutchy from ſuffering the leaſt Prejudice on Account of the new Port which the Court of Modena is erecting at the Mouth of the River Lavenza. We learn from Piſa, that no leſs than ſixteen Highwaymen were executed there laſt Week, three of which were burnt alive, ſix broke on the Wheel, and the other ſeven hanged. We have had in this Country, ſince the Beginning of this Month, ſo many violent Storms of Rain and Hail, that the Fruits of the Earth have ſuffered very much.

Schaffhauſen, June 24. We learn from Zurich, that a numerous Band of Robbers have lately formed themſelves in that Canton, where, as well as in the Canton of Bern, they have committed the greateſt Outrages.

Prague, June 24. Count Brown, Commander in Chief of the Troops in this Kingdom, who arrived here a few Days ago from Vienna, has been employed Yeſterday and To-day in reviewing the Troops of this Garriſon; and next Week he propoſes ſetting out from hence to review thoſe in the Circles of Pilſen and Leutmeritz. Field Marſhal Prince Lobkowitz paſſed through this City on Tueſday laſt, on his Way from Hungary to Raudnitz. They continue to ſay a Camp will be formed in the Neighbourhood of Colin in the Month of Auguſt next; and 'tis even ſaid, that the Regiments for that Service are already named. Publick Prayers are put up in all the Churches of this City, by Order of our Archbiſhop, for the happy Delivery of her Imperial Majeſty.

Dreſden, June 27. The King's Departure for Poland will certainly take Place the Beginning of Auguſt next; and there is the greateſt Reaſon to hope, from the good Harmony which ſeems at preſent to ſubſiſt between the principal Nobility of Poland, that the General Diet, which his Majeſty then goes to hold, will prove more ſucceſsful than the laſt.

Hambourg, July 1. Letters from Stockholm, of the 23d of laſt Month, bring us Advice of his Swediſh Majeſty's Departure for Finland that Morning, with only two Gallies and two Yachts, being attended by Baron Poſſe, who is to go to the Court of Ruſſia with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary, in the room of M. Greiffenheim, nominated as Miniſter at the Diet of Ratisbon. Major General Lantingſhauſen, who, during the laſt Aſſembly of the States of Sweden, conducted himſelf with great Zeal in the Party of the Republicans, has asked and obtained his Diſmiſſion; as has likewiſe the Count de la Gardie, one of his Majeſty's Aids de Camp. Yeſterday in the Afternoon the new Queen of Denmark ſet out from Altona, in order to continue her Journey to Friederickſbourg. Her Majeſty received the Compliments of the Duke of Holſtein Ploen, of the Foreign Miniſters, and of the Deputies of the Magiſtrate of Hambourg, the Day before her Departure. The Swediſh General Lieven arrived here this Morning from Copenhagen, where he has delivered the Order of the Elephant; and from hence he is to go to Berlin, to deliver to his Pruſſian Majeſty that of the Black Eagle, with both which the late King of Sweden was inveſted.

Whitehall, July 4, 1752.

Whereas by the Death of Robert Tigh, Eſq; his Majeſty's late Conſul at Elſenore, his Effects are now devolved to his only Daughter, Widow of the late Commodore Fontenay, an Officer in his Daniſh Majeſty's Service, and to her Children, Subjects of the King of Denmark; and the ſaid Widow, according to the Cuſtom of that Country, having obtain'd the Benefit of a Royal Proclamation, dated the 25th of April laſt, enjoining all Perſons whatſoever, that may have any Claim or Pretenſions upon the late Britiſh Conſul aforeſaid, to make known the ſame either to the Widow Fontenay herſelf, or to Vice Admiral Fontenay, at Copenhagen, within the Space of one Year and ſix Weeks; after the Expiration of which Term no farther Claims are to be received on the Account of the ſaid Conſul deceaſed. The Britiſh Creditors, if any ſuch there be, are therefore to take Notice thereof, and put in their Claims accordingly.
